Department HADDONFIELD BOROUGH POLICE DEPARTMENT	ORI NO. 0417	Dept. Case No. 2019-02015	Incident No. 19044L307
---	-----------------	------------------------------	---------------------------

as Jeffery Kasko, with documentation regarding [REDACTED]

Ms. [REDACTED] then observed Mr. Kasko exit the residence from a secondary door and run to his vehicle in the driveway. Ms. [REDACTED] then placed the documentation on his windshield and Mr. Kasko then began to back his vehicle out of the driveway in an unsafe manner. Ms. [REDACTED] watched as Mr. Kasko struck her vehicle, which was parked on Marne Avenue, at the curb of his driveway. He then fled the area. As Ms. [REDACTED] was explaining this incident to me, I observed a vehicle travel from Princeton Avenue across to the above address. The driver of this vehicle, later identified as Jeffrey Kasko, activated his vehicle's horn while proceeding into the area of his driveway.

I was standing on a portion of the driveway at this time, where I was clearly visible wearing my department issued Haddonfield Police Department uniform, and advised Mr. Kasko to deactivate his vehicle's horn and stop his vehicle. I held my hands up and exclaimed for Mr. Kasko to stop his vehicle. The vehicle did not stop and proceeded towards me in the driveway. I took a step forward and kept my hands in the air and him to stop again. The vehicle slowed but did not stop, at which time the driver's side front mirror struck my left hip and left side of my duty belt.

The vehicle's mirror then went into the folded position. The driver's side window remained in the down position as the driver, Mr. Kasko, began to yell from inside the vehicle. I commanded Mr. Kasko to step outside the vehicle immediately, due to the fact that he struck me. Mr. Kasko then rolled his window up as I commanded him to exit the vehicle. Mr. Kasko then stepped out of the vehicle where he maintained an excited demeanor.

I questioned Mr. Kasko for why he left the scene of an accident and he struck me with his vehicle. Mr. Kasko stated that he had errands to complete and was berating me and not maintaining a professional demeanor or etiquette with this officer. I radioed for back up units to respond to my location to assist with this incident.

On scene were the following officers and members of the command staff: Cpl. Ortiz, Officer Bowen (briefly), Lt. Camscioli, DSGT. Mueller, DCpl. Quicksell and Sgt. Caruso.

51. Narrative

On Wednesday, February 13, 2019, at approximately 0930 hours, I responded to [REDACTED] Marne Avenue, at the request of Lieutenant Camiscioli. Upon my arrival, I was advised that as the defendant was attempting to leave the area to avoid Ms. [REDACTED], a process order server that had gone to the defendant's residence to serve him with paperwork regarding [REDACTED], his vehicle struck Ms. [REDACTED] vehicle. Then during a subsequent encounter, the defendant struck Patrolman Frangieh with the driver side mirror of his vehicle. None of the involved parties reported injuries, but due to the nature of the incident coupled with the defendant's status as an elected official, Lieutenant Camiscioli requested that the scene be photographed and recorded victim/ witness statements be taken. I took digital photographs that showed damage to the involved vehicles as well as a folded in driver side mirror on the defendant's vehicle. The folded in mirror is consistent with both Ms. [REDACTED]'s and Patrolman Frangieh's statements that the defendant struck Patrolman Frangieh with his vehicle. The digital photographs were copied to a disc and submitted as evidence.

Ms. [REDACTED] responded to Haddonfield Police Department Headquarters to provide a statement. Her statement was recorded on a digital voice recorder and then copied onto a disc and submitted as evidence. Patrolman Frangieh also provided a statement, which was recorded in the same manner. Refer to their statements for additional details.

adjacent his residence. After exiting my vehicle, I approached the driveway and I was met by the defendant, Jeffrey Kasko. Mr. Kasko was very upset and immediately complained about Ptl. Frangieh's demeanor toward him at the scene. I advised Mr. Kasko take a moment to calm down. After a brief pause, Mr. Kasko stated that he was returning to his residence in his vehicle and was entering his driveway when Ptl. Frangieh aggressively approached his vehicle while yelling at him. Mr. Kasko was clearly agitated. I then asked Mr. Kasko to try and calm down and remain where he was while I went to check on Ptl. Frangieh.

Once Ptl. Frangieh was done gathering information needed for a crash report from Mrs. [REDACTED], I approached him and asked if he was fine. Ptl. Frangieh's demeanor was calm and stable as it normally is during the course of his work shift. He did not exhibit any signs of irritability as a result of this encounter. I then asked him what had occurred. Ptl. Frangieh stated that as he was standing in the driveway at [REDACTED] Marne Avenue, speaking with Mrs. [REDACTED] about the incident and examining the damage caused to her vehicle by Mr. Kasko, he observed a black vehicle approaching the driveway very quickly from Princeton Avenue. The driver of the vehicle was also blowing the horn excessively as it approached the driveway. Ptl. Frangieh then said that he raised his hands to signal for the driver to stop but the driver kept moving forward very fast. Ptl. Frangieh did not have time to move away from the vehicle and as such, he was struck by the vehicle's driver door mirror. I then asked Ptl. Frangieh if he had been injured. He stated that he had felt the initial pain from the impact but he did not sustain any additional injuries. Ptl. Frangieh did not exhibit any signs of physical injury or discomfort. I then asked Ptl. Frangieh if he had been standing still or moving toward or away from the vehicle when he was struck. He said that he had been standing still but believing that the vehicle was about to stop, he took a step forward and that's when the impact occurred. He then said that when the vehicle was stopped, he grabbed the door handle to open the door but it was locked. This is the moment that Ptl. Frangieh said he called for assistance. Mr. Kasko had rolled up his driver door window and remained in the vehicle for a few seconds thereafter. When Mr. Kasko opened his door, Ptl. Frangieh said that he approached Mr. Kasko and asked him why he didn't stop and why he hit him with his vehicle. Seeing that Mr. Kasko was very irate, Ptl. Frangieh asked Mr. Kasko to step to the front of his vehicle and wait there. Ptl. Frangieh then said that is when I, Cpl. J. Ortiz, arrived on scene. Ensuring that Ptl. Frangieh was stable, I advised him that I was going back to speak with Mr. Kasko who initially reported that he thought Ptl. Frangieh was too aggressive. I advised Ptl. Frangieh that given the complaint made by Mr. Kasko, it was not uncommon for an Internal Investigation to occur afterwards.

I then returned to Mr. Kasko who had already calmed down. He requested that I call The Chief of Police. I then walked a few feet away from him and called the Chief to advise him of the incident. Shortly thereafter, Lt. Camiscioli and A/Lt. Caruso arrived on scene. I advised them of the events that transpired as reported to me by Ptl. Frangieh and Mrs. [REDACTED]. It was determined that Mr. Kasko was to be arrested and charged for the assault on Ptl. Frangieh. I then advised Mr. Kasko that he was under arrest for the assault on Ptl. Frangieh with his vehicle. Mr. Kasko was transported to police headquarters in vehicle 17-07, with a starting mileage of 62289 and an end mileage of 62292 upon arriving at headquarters. A/Lt. Caruso was present for the transport in vehicle 17-07.

While at headquarters, Mr. Kasko was charged and processed for the offenses committed. Due to the length of time he was in police custody, Mr. Kasko was given food and a beverage. He was subsequently remanded to The Camden County Correctional Facility on warrant number 0417-W-2019-000013. Additionally, summons number 0417-S-2019-000012, was served upon Mr. Kasko, charging him with Criminal Mischief in the third degree, for the damage to Mrs. [REDACTED]'s vehicle. Court proceedings are pending on all charges.
